UNIQUE Selling POINTS

- Exclusive Location & Scenic Views: Set on the banks of the Ewaso Nyiro River, where wildlife and water meet, the lodge offers sweeping views of the arid Samburu landscape — including the majestic Koitogo Hills and the sacred Ololokwe Mountain.
- A place with History: The first lodge built in Samburu National Reserve, it has welcomed travelers for generations — a quiet landmark in a remote corner of Kenya.
- Eco-Conscious, wild and unfenced Luxury: Our cottage-style rooms offer simple, thoughtful comfort. We use solar power, conserve water, and handle waste with care — not just for today's guests, but for the future of this place.
- Accessibility: The lodge is wheelchair-friendly throughout, allowing all guests to move freely and enjoy the experience without restriction.
- Boma Area and Nest Bar: Spend time at the Boma, where Samburu stories and songs are shared by fireplace over a savory meal. Or enjoy a drink at the Nest Bar, built above the river, where the sounds of water and wildlife carry into the night.
- Samburu's Special Five: Enjoy rare and exclusive wildlife sightings of species found only in this region north of the equator — including the Grevy's zebra, Reticulated giraffe, Beisa oryx, Gerenuk, and Somali ostrich.
- Samburu Culture Up Close: Authentic interactions with the proud Samburu people, offering a glimpse into their rich traditions and way of life.

SAMBURU SPECIAL 5

The reserve is home to the rare and iconic Samburu Special Five—Grevy's zebra, reticulated giraffe, Somali ostrich, Beisa oryx, and the long-necked gerenuk. With its dramatic landscapes, rich Samburu culture, and abundant wildlife, the region offers a distinctive mix of nature and heritage. Soroj Samburu Lodge provides a raw and personal connection to the wild, making it an ideal escape for photographers, cultural explorers, and anyone looking to discover a different side of Kenya.
