Kololo Game Reserve

“From enjoying the Big Five while being on safari to walking and biking around freely among the African wildlife. Relaxed, comfortable, malaria free and child friendly, only a 3,5 hours’ drive from Johannesburg.”

- Access to Big Five
- Accommodation and free walking/biking among harmless wildlife
- Malaria free and child friendly
- At 3,5 hours’ drive from Johannesburg
- Restaurant
- Swimming pool
- Curio shop and small snacks shop

Kololo Game Reserve is a nature reserve where harmless African wildlife roams free. You can walk around freely and safely within the whole reserve from any of our accommodations. This is what makes Kololo a perfect family destination. You can thoroughly enjoy the African bush while being surrounded by giraffe, zebra, kudu, wildebeest and many more species of game and birds.

Part of Welgevonden Game Reserve

Kololo Game Reserve is part of the even bigger Welgevonden Game Reserve. Welgevonden is home to the Big Five and many other big and small African game species. No private cars are allowed to enter the reserve, but we offer daily game drives in an open safari vehicle from Kololo to spot the Big Five.
