MALARIA

The Kenyan Coast is a malarial area. There is some malaria in The Masai Mara but because of the altitude it is less common. You may want to consider malarial prophylactics for this reason. Malarone is the most common.

TIME ZONE

Kenya is on (UTC + 03:00) Nairobi. This is 1 hour ahead of South Africa, 2 -3 hours ahead of UK and 7 -11 hours ahead of USA.

INOCULATIONS

Your local travel clinic should be able to advise in this regard. The yellow fever vaccine is required by a number of countries on your return from Kenya.

INSURANCE

Please ensure you have appropriate travel and medical insurance. For $15 we can purchase on your behalf, a 2-week temporary membership to The Flying Doctors' Society for Emergency Medical Evacuation.

CURRENCY

We recommend bringing cash to cover tips and other incidental expenses. ATM machines are available in Nairobi but not in the Masai Mara. If bringing USD please ensure that the bills are dated 2009 to present year as many places will not accept older bills. Most establishments will accept Visa or Mastercard and some will accept American Express.
